

Open Positions

Theralem, LLC is a counseling services company. We provide mental health counseling services to individuals, couples, groups, as well as children and teens.

We are values-driven. We aim to provide excellent service to our clients. And likewise, we honor our multicultural team of mental health professionals who directly serve our clients.

Theralem strives to create a company culture where staff are proud to be a member of the Theralem team.

We are currently recruiting mental health professionals to join our in-person counseling staff in Houston, TX and our virtual counseling team who serve clients both inside and outside of Texas.
